- Commission or alleged commission of any offence
- Any proceedings for any offence committed or alleged to have been committed, the disposal of such proceedings or the sentence of any court in such proceedings.

The Six Data Protection Principles

The DPA 2018 requires St Mary Magdalen's, its staff and others who process or use any personal information must comply with the eight data protection principles.

The principles require that personal data shall:

- Be obtained and processed fairly and lawfully and shall not be processed unless certain conditions are met
- Be obtained for a specified and lawful purpose and shall not be processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose
- Be adequate, relevant and not excessive for those purposes
- Be accurate and kept up to date
- Not be kept for longer than is necessary for those purpose
- Be processed in accordance with the data subject's rights
- Be kept safe from unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage
- Not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area (unless that country has equivalent levels of protection for personal data)

Responsibilities

St Mary Magdalen's has an appointed Data Protection Officer to handle day-to-day issues which arise, and to provide members of St Mary Magdalen's with guidance on Data Protection issues to ensure they are aware of their obligations.

All new members of staff will be required to complete a mandatory information governance module as part of their induction and existing staff will be requested to undertake refresher training on a regular basis.

Employees of St Mary Magdalen's are expected to:

- Familiarise themselves and comply with the eight data protection principles.
- Ensure any possession of personal data is accurate and up to date.
- Ensure their own personal information is accurate and up to date.
- Keep personal data for no longer than is necessary.
- Ensure that any personal data they process is secure and in compliance with St Mary Magdalen's information related policies and strategies.
- Acknowledge data subjects' rights (e.g. right of access to all their personal data held by St Mary Magdalen's) under the DPA 2018, and comply with access to records.
- Ensure personal data is only used for those specified purposes and is not unlawfully used for any other business that does not concern St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School.
- Obtain consent with collecting, sharing or disclosing personal data
- Contact Mr L J Duncan, Head Teacher for any concerns or doubt relating to data protection to avoid any infringements of the DPA 2018.

Students, of St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School are expected to:

- Comply with the six data protection principles
- Comply with any security procedures implemented by St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School.

Obtaining, Disclosing and Sharing

Only personal data that is necessary for a specific School related business reason should be obtained.

Students are informed about how their data will be processed when they agree to the Data Processing Consent Notice upon registration.

Upon acceptance of employment at St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School, members of staff also consent to the processing and storage of their data.

Data must be collected and stored in a secure manner.

Personal information must not be disclosed to a third party organisation without prior consent of the individual concerned. This also includes information that would confirm whether or not an individual is or has been an applicant, student or employee of St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School.

St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School may have a duty to disclose personal information in order to comply with legal or statutory obligation. The DPA 2018 allows the disclosure of personal data to authorised bodies, such as the police and other organisations that have a crime prevention or law enforcement function. Any requests to disclose personal data for reasons relating to national security, crime and taxation should be directed to Mr L J Duncan, Head Teacher.

Personal information that is shared with third parties on a more regular basis shall be carried out under written agreement to stipulate the purview and boundaries of sharing. For circumstances where personal information would need to be shared in the case of ad hoc arrangements, sharing shall be undertaken in compliance with the DPA 2018.

Retention, Security and Disposal

Recipients responsible for the processing and management of personal data need to ensure that the data is accurate and up-to-date. If an employee, student or applicant is dissatisfied with the accuracy of their personal data, then they must inform Mr L J Duncan, Head Teacher.

Personal information held in paper and electronic format shall not be retained for longer than is necessary. In accordance with principle 2 and principle 4 of the DPA 2018, personal information shall be collected and retained only for business, regulatory or legal purposes.

In accordance with the provisions of the DPA 2018, all staff whose work involves processing personal data, whether in electronic or paper format, must take personal responsibility for its secure storage and ensure appropriate measures are in place to prevent accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data. In accordance with St Mary Magdalen's Flexible Working Scheme, staff working from home will be responsible for ensuring that personal data is stored securely and is not accessible to others.

All departments should ensure that data is destroyed in accordance with the Retention Schedule when it is no longer required.

Personal data in paper format must be shredded or placed in the confidential waste bins provided. Personal data in electronic format should be deleted, and CDs and pen drives that hold personal data passed to your I.T provider for safe disposal. Hardware should be appropriately degaussed in compliance with your I.T service provider contract and conform with DPA and GDPR requirements.

Transferring Personal Data

Any transfer of personal data must be done securely in line with the St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School Information Security Policy.

Email communication is not always secure and sending personal data via external email should be avoided unless it is encrypted with a password provided to the recipient by separate means such as via telephone.

Care should be taken to ensure emails containing personal data are not sent to unintended recipients. It is important that emails are addressed correctly and care is taken when using reply all or forwarding or copying others in to emails. Use of the blind copy facility should be considered when sending an email to multiple recipients to avoid disclosing personal information to others.

Personal email accounts should not be used to send or receive personal data for work purpose.

Data Subjects Right of Access (Subject Access Requests)

Under the DPA 2018, individuals (both staff and students) have the right of access to their personal data held by St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School. This applies to data held in both paper and electronic format, and within a relevant filing system.

St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School shall use its discretion under the DPA 2018 to encourage informal access at a local level to a data subject's personal information, but it will also have a formal procedure for the processing of Subject Access Requests.

Any individual who wishes to exercise this right should make the request through submitting a Subject Access Request Form.

This is available on St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School website at www.seahamstmary@durhamlearning.net or by contacting Mr L J Duncan, Head Teacher.

St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School may not charge a fee. It will only release any information upon receipt of the completed Subject Access Request Form, along with proof of identity or proof of authorisation where requests are made on the behalf of a data subject by a third party. The requested information will be provided within the statutory timescale of 1 month from receipt of the completed form.

Reporting a Data Security Breach

It is important St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School responds to a data security breach quickly and effectively. A breach may arise from a theft, a deliberate attack on St Mary Magdalen's systems, unauthorised use of personal data, accidental loss or equipment failure. Any data breach should be reported to the Data Protection Officer at DPO@gateshead.gov.uk and if it relates to an IT incident (including information security), should also be reported to the Headteacher and in certain circumstances to your I.T provider – please refer to the Data breach reporting policy for more information.

Any breach will be investigated in line with the procedures within the Data Breach Policy. In accordance with that Policy, St Mary Magdalen's RC Primary School will treat any breach as a serious issue. Each incident will be investigated and judged on its individual circumstances and addressed accordingly.
